MAIN AIMS

01

Allow companies to rediscover a new exciting and stable market in which they can operate liberally.

02

Rebuild a new industry with more clarity and transparency, with the New Government presenting the potentialities of one of the biggest oil and gas producer in the world.

03

Promote the Libyan oil and gas industry as a stable and profitable investment opportunity for international companies.

04

Share experiences and knowledge gained from both the international and local perspective of successful strategies to maximize the abundant opportunities that are readily available.

05

Act as an introduction point for new entrants in the Libyan market, to assist them in gathering as much information as possible of how to do business.

06

Encourage new opportunities that will be available soon for further concessions in the vastly under exploited and resource rich Libyan territory.

07

Show that the New Libya is back and ready for business.
